

What have YOU got to lose?

DON'T GIVE FIRE
A HOME

Every home has its treasures

Photos of the kids when they were young, even though they're a bit faded. The watch that gran always liked to wear, even if it doesn't work now. The strip the team signed that time they won the championship.

It's treasures like these that you lose when you have a fire in your home. Maybe they don't have a cash value. But they're valuable to you. And you can never replace them.

Every year, too many people in Scotland lose their lives in house fires. But many more lose their treasures. Take a minute today to take care of your treasures.
